

HARRIS myCFO®

Kristine Givens brings unique perspective and exceptional talent to her role at Harris myCFO, Inc. Both were honed over a dozen years spent running her own firm specializing in providing tax planning and other financial services to ultra-high net worth families. Today, in addition to her tax planning capabilities, Kristine provides estate and philanthropy planning, tapping a deep understanding of the technical issues that exist in those areas as well as the implications they hold for family planning and wealth preservation.

A published author of both books and articles, Kristine graduated from Purdue University's Krannert School of Business with a BS in Accountancy, and from DePaul University, Chicago with an MS in Taxation. She is a member of the Illinois CPA® Society and the Chicago Finance Exchange.

Kristine lives with her daughter in Hinsdale, IL. She sits on the Board of Directors for Metropolitan Family Services and enjoys spending time with her daughter, golfing, exercising and reading.
